Day 2 in London

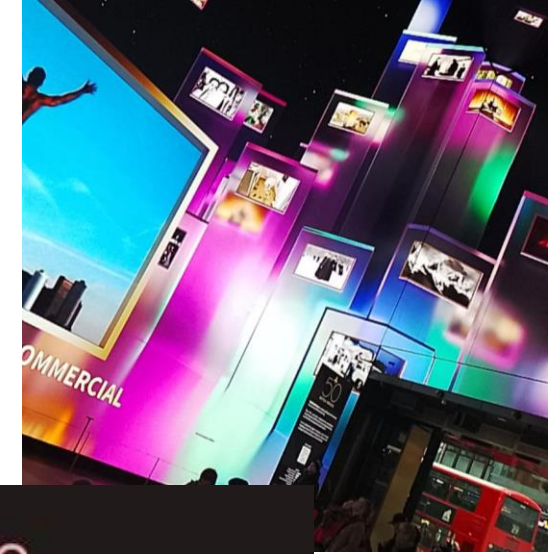

On the second day in London we saw many well known sights. We were in Westminster Abbey, where kings and queens used to be crowned. We also saw the House of Parliament and the famous Big Ben, which lie directly on the Thames. We also visited the Tower Bridge, which can be opened. Of course, we were also at Buckingham Palace, where the king lives, and in St. James's Park, which is right next door. We were also at Piccadilly Circus with the big screens, in Chinatown London and at Leicester Square. Finally, we saw the Camden Market, where there are many food stalls and cool things. The day was really exciting overall and we saw a lot.

Day 3

Breakfast was at 9 a.m. After breakfast, we took the Underground to Greenwich at 10 a.m. In Greenwich, we took the cable car across the Thames to the O2 Arena. At the O2, we had time to eat and shop. After the O2, we went to Cutty Sark, where we had free time until our boat arrived. We took the boat to Embankment. From Embankment, we took the train to Outernet, where we watched the show. Afterwards, we went to Hamleys, the largest toy store in Europe.

Day 4

Today we went to The Natural History Museum, Horizon 22 and the Weatherspoon pub.

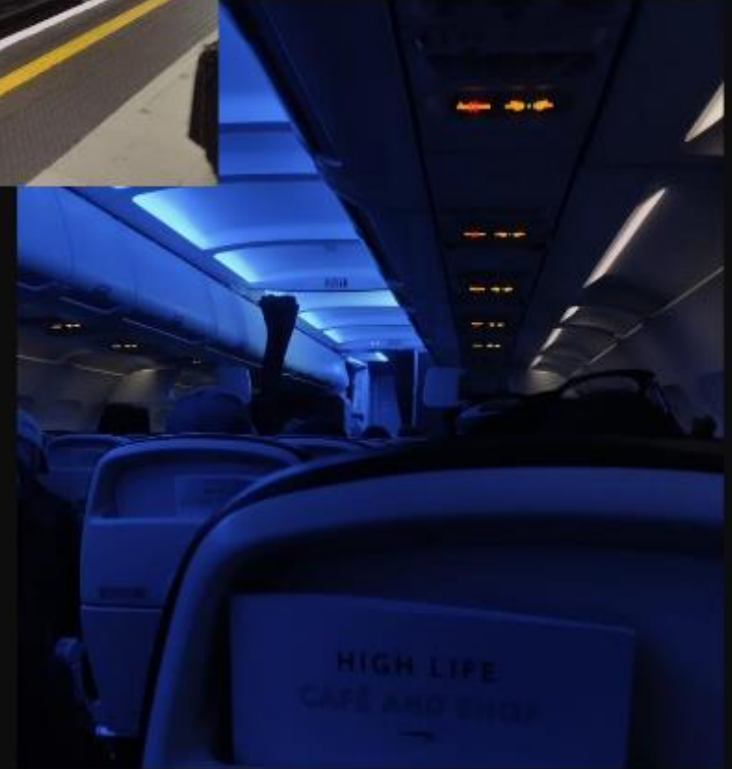

First we went to The Natural History Museum where we saw skeletons of extinct creatures and dinosaurs.

Next we visited the Horizon 22 where we went up to the 50th floor from where we were able to see most of London. In the evening we went to a Weatherspoon pub and we had nice food. That was our 4th day.

Friday

On the fifth day, we began our journey home. After breakfast we cleaned our rooms, we checked out around 10:00 AM and waited in the lobby until about 11:30 AM. Then we took the train from Elephant and Castle station via Paddington to the airport. There, we checked our luggage, went through security, and took off around 3:30 PM. We landed at about 5:30 PM and later continued our journey by train to Wolfsburg. Our parents picked us up at the station, and we went home.

It was a lovely trip!
